SUBJECT:

Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc. – Resolution with Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc. related to the elimination of distance-sensitive elements for HTLD rates and introducing a new flat rated offering to residential customers. Discuss with the Commission Office of Regulatory Staff's request that the Commission establish a docket for this matter and prescribe the requisite notice to the public.

COMMISSION ACTION:

CARRY OVER

This motion is in reference to Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc.'s Tariff Filing dated March 4, 2005 related to the elimination of distance-sensitive elements for HTLD rates and introducing a new flat rated offering to residential customers. By letter dated March 18, the Office of Regulatory staff requested that the Commission establish a docket for this matter and prescribe the requisite notice to the public, because ORS has reason to believe that this filing may affect the general body of subscribers. Commissioner Howard moved that the Commission carry over this request and instruct the Commission staff to prepare a letter to ORS requesting further explanation as to how this filing may affect the general body of subscribers.
